PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE,

WASHINGTON.

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St., BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, (late Agent of the Patent Office under the Act of 1837,) determined upon present advantages in applying for patents, in addition to those offered inventors by other establishments, arrangements, whereby, on application, his business will be conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS instead of twenty, as paid back by previous law, is entitled to full refund in case of failure to procure a patent, and the withdrawal, through me, within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Assignments, and all necessary drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered in legal and scientific matters respecting infringement of patents.

Inventors here not only can obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally for less than those of others in the trade,) but avail themselves of the experience of a practical, an extensive library of mechanical works, and correct accounts of inventions patented in this and other countries; besides saving a journey to Washington, the expense of living there, as well as all personal attendance in obtaining their patents. Copies of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Models or documents forwarded to Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

(From the Boston Daily Bee.)

Mr. Eddy, who has recently opened the office of Messrs. Munn & Co., Solicitors of Patents, in Boston, has had much experience in that capacity, while he was in the Patent Office, and there made himself acquainted with the best methods of securing patents, and the best mechanical and scientific men to execute the drawings, &c., connected with the business. He is a native of the United States, and has been for some time in the employ of Munn & Co., and has the reputation of being a gentleman of integrity and business talent. We cannot do better than recommend those who may have business at the Patent Office, to call on Mr. Eddy, at his office, 76 State-st., Boston, and entrust their application to a person who will be found competent and trustworthy, and who will prosecute their claims with as much fidelity and as reasonable consideration as the principals themselves would do.

EDWARD EVERETT,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

(From the present Commissioner.)

Mr. R. H. Eddy, during the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, was extensively engaged in the transaction of business at the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly versed in the law, and the rules of practice before the Patent Office, and has in case of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

A MARVELLOUS REMEDY

For a Marvellous Age!!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!!

The Grand External Remedy.

By the aid of a microscope we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies—Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part. Diseases of the Kidneys, Disorders of the Liver, affections of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Asthma, Coughs and Colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that salt passes through bone or meat of any thickness.—This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be touched by other means.

Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, and Scorbutic Humors.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of diseases of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. No case of Salt Rheum, Scurvy, Sore Head, Scrofula, or Erysipelas, can long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health.

Sore Legs, Sore Breasts, Wounds and Ulcers.

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swellings, and tumors. Professor Holloway has, by command of the Allied Governments, despatched to the hospitals of the East, large shipments of this Ointment, to be used under the direction of the Medical Staff, in the worst cases of wounds. It will cure any ulcer, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years' standing.

Piles and Fistulas.

These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment be well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed directions around each pot.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles	Sprains
Burns,	Rheumatism	Scalds
Chapped Hands	Salt Rheum	Swelled Glands
Chilblains	Sore Throats	Stiff Joints
Fistulas	Sore Legs	Ulcers
Gout	Sore Breasts	Venereal Sores
Lumbago	Sore Heads	Wounds of all kinds.
Mercurial Eruptions	Scald Heads
	Burns of all kinds

☞ Sold at the Manufactories of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and 244 Strand, London, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the United States, and the civilized world, in Pots, at 25 cts, 62½ cents, and $1 each.

☞ There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B. Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.

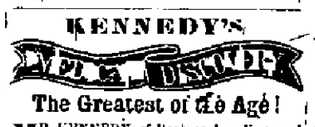
KENNEDY'S



The Greatest of the Age!

MR. KENNEDY, of Roxbury, has discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, from the worst Scrofula down to a common pimple. He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two. He has now in his possession over two hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two to three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the mouth and stomach.

Three to five bottles are warranted to cure the worst cases of erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humors in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running in the ears and blotches in the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the worst case of ring worm.

Two to three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate cases of rheumatism.

Three to six bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the very worst case of Scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure warranted when the above quantity is taken.

Nothing looks so improbable to those who have in vain tried all the wonderful medicines of the day as, that a common weed, growing upon the pastures, and along old stone walls, should cure every humor in the system: yet it is now a fixed fact. If you have a humor it has to start. There are no if's nor ands about it, as thing some cases but not yours. He has peddled over a thousand bottles of it in the vicinity of Boston, and knows the effects of it in every case. It has already done some of the greatest cures ever done in Massachusetts. He gave it to children a year old, to old people of sixty; and has seen puny sickly children, whose flesh was soft and flabby, restored to a perfect state of health by one bottle.

To those who are subject to sick headache, one bottle will always cure it. It gives great relief in catarrh and dizziness. Some who have taken it have been costive for years, and have been regulated by it. Where the body is sound it works quite easy, but where there is any derangement of the functions of nature, it will cause very singular feelings, but you must not be alarmed—they always disappear in from four days to a week.—There is never a bad result from it—on the contrary, when that feeling is gone, you will feel yourself like a new person. I heard some of the most extravagant encomiums of it that ever man listened to.

No change of diet ever necessary. Eat the best you can get and enough of it.

ROXBURY, Sept. 19, 1853.

This is to certify that H. H. HAY, Druggist, Portland, is the duly AUTHORISED GENERAL AGENT for my MEDICAL DISCOVERY for the STATE OF MAINE, and that he is supplied with the GENUINE, direct from my Laboratory.

What the Journal intends to do with the Whig Party.

The Journal of the 15th, in reply to some former remarks of ours, which it considers "pointless," has an article of a column and a half, which, if not entirely pointless, we can perceive to have but one material point, and that runs through every paragraph,—viz., that the Strait Whig leaders intend to cling to their alliance with the old hunker democrats, and to drag as many of their followers as possible into an ultimate "fusion" with that party. The editor says, to be sure, the "Whig party" intends to sustain its organization and identity—but, notwithstanding—

"Having at heart the interests and the honor—and the prosperity and welfare of the State, and the natural rights of citizens, it had united with a great and magnanimous party to advance and protect all. Neither fine words nor anguish—the hypocritical protestations of sympathy of the Black-Republican party—its taunts or jeers, can disturb that unity of purpose which now exists between those who wrenched the State from the hands of a wicked and venal dynasty. While we do not shut our eyes to the future, we propose to take care of the present. We have got to fight one more battle for Maine, in which the liberty and prosperity of her people are involved. That battle, the Whig party will rallow its various divisions into the ranks of those who shall be found battling against sectionalism and Wade-ism, and for the Constitution and the Union.

We have no manner of doubt that the leaders of that party—the men who now endeavor to deceive the voters by holding out the idea of a continuance of the old Whig party,—are fully prepared to "throw their weight" into the ranks of the democratic party,—which is the only meaning that can be attached to the words above quoted, but that any portion of the honest and true Whigs of Maine are prepared to follow them there, we do not believe. How "the organization and identity of the Whig party" is to be preserved by so doing, is certainly not clear, and we judge that the Whig voters will for more than some moment pause and ponder," ere they take the step.

The Journal proposes to fight "one more battle for liberty and prosperity (i. e. liberty in the liquor traffic) in Maine," and then go over, body and soul "to those who shall be found battling against sectionalism and for the Constitution and the Union." As the Journal, with a frequent reiteration of its belief, assumes that the Republican party is the party opposed to the Constitution and the Union, and as the democratic party is that with which the Republicans are waging battle, it follows clearly that it must be that same democratic party into whose ranks the Journal men are going to "throw their weight"—and that is to be "after one more battle for liberty in the State," the ultimate fusion is clearly to take place at the Presidential election, and, as all the signs clearly indicate, with Frank Pierce for their fusion candidate. If the general and somewhat undefinite language of the Journal means anything, it means this—and at this complexion of things we once more invite all honest Whigs to look. The ultimate aim of the men who are now leading them is directly into the bosom of the democratic party, with a platform embracing a full endorsement of Pierce's administration, and an entire acquiescence in the Nebraska fraud and in any other outrages which the slave power may see fit to perpetrate. It is to the democratic (not the Whig) party that these Journal gentlemen look for obtaining of fice and patronage; and, asking the pardon of Messrs. Sanborn & Co., we shall continue to warn all honest Whigs of the scheme which has been formed to use them votes for a capital upon which to trade with the old leaders of the democracy.

Passing by, however, the more and more palpable fact that the political self-seekers among the Strait Whigs are simply and only aiming at place and patronage by a permanent alliance with the democratic party, we desire to notice for a moment the false and mendacious charge that the Republican party is opposed to the Constitution and the Union. "Loyalty to the Constitution and the Union" is the only distinctive issue which the Journal has been able to specify as a basis for an independant Whig party, and as this issue is to be an opinion with the "great and magnanimous" democratic party as the Journal calls it, we are still obtuse enough not to perceive how it is an issue upon which the Whig party can maintain an organized existence against the democratic party. Be that as it may, however, let us compare and test the positions of the Republican and Strait Whig parties on this very question of devotion to the Union.

The Journal accuses the Republican party of hostility to the Union. That hostility must, of course, be judged of by the political action it proposes to take. The charges of disunionism are based solely upon the position of the Republican party on the slavery question. And what is that position? Simply one of opposition to the spread of slavery—or at the utmost, a determination, to restrict the institution of slavery to the States where it now exists, to restore freedom in Kansas, and to disconnect the Federal Government from all responsibility in supporting or defending it. The special measures which the Republicans advocate are:—the Restoration of Freedom in Kansas, or, as an alternative, a refusal to admit her as a slave State—the Freedom of all the Territories, and the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law as it now stands. This is the sum and substance of the Republican creed on the slavery question—and this is all the proposed national action which the Journal can point to, when it a temptation to brand the Republican party as opposed to the Union and the Constitution.

Now let us see what these same Strait Whig leaders have proposed as their own doctrines on these same points. On the 8th of August, 1854, they assembled in convention at Knox, and

"Resolved. That we pledge our best efforts—
To Repeal the Fugitive Slave Law.
To restore the prohibition of slavery in Kansas and Nebraska.
To prohibit slavery in all the Territories.
To resist the acquisition of any more territory unless slavery shall be forever excluded.
To abolish slavery in the District of Columbia.
And to protect the Constitutional rights of all citizens going into other States"—(meaning a resistance of the black laws of the South.)

Here we have the same doctrines (carried to even a greater extent) for maintaining which the Journal now accuses the Republican party of disunionism, and talks magnanimously about getting up a "Union and Constitution party" to oppose. These are the doctrines which the Journal pretended to espouse one year ago. We now find it, however, acting in close communion with the national democratic party, which repudiates every one of these doctrines, as being "sectional," and opposes to the Compromises of the Constitution. In this view of their sectionalism the Journal now apparently coincides, and is evidently prepared to go into the next Presidential election on that platform. If this is not so, its language is meaningless. We repeat, that the Republican party looks to no stronger political action by Congress against slavery, than is embraced in these same Kendukeag resolutions. And yet the Journal calls it "platitude disunion," and says that "the Whig party is going to stand by the Constitution and its Compromises" as against these doctrines.

Is it not as palpable as sunlight that the Journal is now acting in direct antagonism to the former doctrines of the Strait Whig party? It is now aiding, comforting and helping to victory the national democratic party which explicitly denies the right of Congress to "prohibit slavery in all the Territories," and which calls it disunionism to attempt "to repeal the Fugitive Slave Law," or "to abolish slavery in the District of Columbia." This is precisely what the Southern politicians say; and yet the Journal men almost avow their intention of leading the Strait Whigs into the democratic camp and placing them on that platform—an intention which we must still believe they lack the influence to carry out.

The water at Oldtown fell off about a foot yesterday (15th,) and there was no further apprehension of damage from the freshet. There were no logs running yesterday, and there had been no injury to any of the mills or bridges on the river, so far as known. There are various estimates (all the way from 6000 to 15,000) as to the number of logs which escaped from the boom or were floated off from the raps or banks of the river. It is in fact impossible to form an accurate estimate, as a large portion of them went down during Sunday night. The lumbering interest has escaped with a small loss, for so powerful a freshet.

Reaping where he Sowed Not.—One man, in Rumford, hooked 25 bushels of corn, from the corn he took out of the river, during the late freshet. The harvest of pumpkins from the same source, proved a lucrative business. In many fields on the low land, nearly all the corn was carried down river.

The citizens of Bath have subscribed $5,000 towards the building of a ship, to be presented to the American Colonization Society.

The Sickness on board the Uncle Sam.

The following is a list of the names of the passengers who were swept off by that terrible scourge, cholera, on board the steamer Uncle Sam, on her voyage from Sandwich to San Francisco:

Crew.—Second assistant engineer, J. C. Rose; assistant carpenter, name unknown; fireman, name unknown.

Cabin Passengers.—Miss Cornland, Abraham Cornland, Rowland Craig, David Bennett and Mrs. Reed, and child of E. C. Bond.

Steerage Passengers.—John Farrell, W. Saunders, infant named Rellinger, M. Walkingberg, G Lewis, B. Farrel, Mrs Rice, George Derbyshire, Jacob Metzel, Mrs Gamsey, child of Mrs Voomer, child of Mrs Kennedy, Thomas Gaffney, O. Cougan, Eliza Sarzias, Charlotte E Shawnes, William Wallace, John Degere, T. Klopfin, Matilda Knopf, H Tarre, Fendir and Gote, Alex. Moore, Mr Gallagher, F. Rosenberg, M. Lather, infant of D. Davis, Mrs Eckert, A. J. Mills, Mrs Leonard White, child of Mrs Hubbard. Total 108; adults 98, children 8.

Much of the sickness on board is said to be attributed to the imprudence of passengers, many of whom crossed the Isthmus on foot, and indulged freely in eating and drinking on the Pacific side. A large number of passengers were compelled to walk across the Isthmus, owing to the political troubles in that vicinity which had caused the natives to withdraw their mules.

A tornado occurred at Gloucester, Mass., on Monday night, doing considerable damage. The Traveller says:—

"It first struck the house of Mr. D. Creasy, the windows of which were blown out, and the building otherwise badly damaged. Another two story dwelling house was also struck with such fever blown underneath it and moved for several rods, while the upper story, in which the family were sleeping, was disconnected, and fell to the ground below, without a person therein being injured."

The house of Mr. John M. Parsons was badly damaged, and all the outhouses within its range were prostrated.

Impostors.—I take this means of again cautioning the ladies of our city against impostors. A young woman is now calling on families soliciting clothing for Sabbath school children; also asking for provisions. She is the same person, under a different name who called for a similar object last year; the one who begged money to purchase a barrel of flour for a poor family on Grove street; the one who sometimes borrows clothes for funeral occasions. Yesterday she called at a house and asked for clothes, and while the lady of the house disturbed herself to procure some things for her, the cloak stops new articles of clothing from a drawer in the room. Further remark is unnecessary.

SALEM WILLIS
Bangor, Oct. 16. City Marshal.

Danger in the Forest. We learn by Mr Delaine, driver of the Skowhegan stage, that the damage on the Kennebec, in that vicinity, was very great. At Skowhegan, the waters swept away three saw-mills Chase & Hill's cloth mill, two shovel handle factories, two store-houses, and the bridge on the Skowhegan side, besides doing much damage to the remaining buildings and carrying away considerable lumber and other property. The water Sunday morning, at a point near Skowhegan, was seven feet over the road, which was piled full of logs, boards, drift-wood, &c., enough to require the aid of twenty or thirty men and several teams of oxen, all day Monday, to render it passable.

At North Anson twelve buildings were carried away. Twelve horses and several flocks of sheep, were washed from Moore's Island near Anson, and drowned.

The water was within a few inches of as high as at the great freshet of 1832, which swept everything before it. It is said that at Skowhegan the river rose from twenty-five to thirty feet.

Military.—At a meeting of the Bangor Rifle Company, held at the armory, last evening, Major Samuel B. Field presiding, the following officers were chosen:—

Luther H. Eaton, Captain; Sam'l S. Thompson, 1st Lieutenant; William Boyd, 2d Lieut.; George R. Wheeden, 3d Lieut.; Albert G. Fellows, 4th Lieut.

The Burning of Sebastopol.

From the correspondence of the London Times we copy the following graphic description of the burning of Sebastopol by the Russians:

The surprise throughout the camp on Sunday morning was beyond description, when the news spread that Sebastopol was on fire and that the enemy were retreating. The tremendous explosions which shook the very ground like so many earthquakes failed to disturb many of our wearied soldiers. When I rose, are day-break, and got up to Cathcart's hill, there were not many officers standing on that favorite spot; and the sleepers who had lain down to rest, doubtful of the complete success of the French, and certain of our own failure, little dreamed that Sebastopol was over. All was ready for a renewed assault on the Redan, but the Russians having kept up a brisk fire from the Rifle pits and embrasures to the last moment, and having accepted the same plan along their lines, so as to blind our eyes and engage our attention, abandoned them, it is supposed, about 12 o'clock, and the silence having attracted the attention of our men, some volunteers crept up and looked through an embrasure, and found the place deserted by all save the dead and dying. Soon afterwards wandering fires gleamed through the streets and outskirts of the town—point after point became alight—the flames shone out of the windows of the houses—rows of massive naught and burnt up, and, are day-break, the town of Sebastopol—that fine and stately mistress of the Euxine, on which we had so often turned a longing eye,—was on fire from the sea to the Dockyard Creek. Fort Alexander was blown up with a stupendous crash that made the very earth reel, early in the night. At sunrise our large explosions on the left followed in quick succession, and announced the destruction of the Quarantine Forts and of the magazines of the batteries of the Central Bastion and Flagstaff Fort. In a moment afterwards the powder left of the Redan was the scene of a very heavy explosion, which must have destroyed a number of wounded men on both sides. Fortunately the soldiers who had entered it early in the night were withdrawn. The Pagasoff and Garden Batteries blew up one after another, at 4 45. At 5 30 there were two of the largest and grandest explosions on the left that ever shook the earth—most probably from Fort Alexander and the Grand Magazine. The rush of black smoke, of grey and white vapor, of massive stone, of beams of timber and of masonry into the air was appalling, and then followed the roar of a great bombardment; it was a magazine of shells blown up into the air, and, exploding like some pyrotechnic display in the sky—the effect of the innumerable flashes of fire twittering high up in the column of smoke over the town, and then changing rapidly into as many bells of white smoke like little clouds. All this time the Russians were marching with sullen tramp across the bridge, and boats were busy carrying off material from the town, or bearing men to the South Side, to complete the work of destruction and renew the fires of hidden mines, or light up unlouched houses. Of the fleet, all that remained visible were the eight steamers and the masts of sunken link-of-battle ships.—As soon as it was dawn, the French began to crawl from their trenches into the burning town, undismayed by the flames, by the terrors of these explosions, by the fire of a lurking enemy or by the fire of their own guns, which kept up a slow discharge of shot and grape into the suburbs at regular intervals, with the object of deterring stragglers from visiting their lives. Bearded breeches and blue breeches, kepis and Zouave fez could soon be distinguished in amid the flames, and moving from house to house.—By 8 o'clock there were numbers of men coming back with plunder, such as it was, and Russian relics were offered for sale in camp before the Russian battalions had marched out of the city.

At 7.12, immense clouds of black smoke rose from behind Fort Paul, probably from a steamer which we found burning in the dockyard. The Russian columns which had been defiling in a continuous stream across the bridge, now became broken into small bodies or went over in intermittent masses, unscathed by the shot and shell which plunged into the water close beside them. At 8.45 the last dense column marched past, and soon afterwards the bridge was pulled asunder, and the pieces were all floated across to the north side at 8 7.

Balloon Ascension—Mysterious Disappearance.—Mr. Winchester made a balloon ascension from Norwalk, Ohio, on Tuesday the 2d instant afternoon, and on Friday no things of him had been received. When he started he said he intended to go higher and further than any aeronaut had ever dared to think of going. It is feared by some that when he got up into the upper current, the intense coldness which prevails in that region soon rendered him insensible, and that he was frozen to death. Others think that he may have come down in the lake and been drowned. Mr. W. made his first ascension from Milan, this Fall, and landed near Hudson. He rose to the height of 20,000 feet, and was so cold at one time as to become sleepy and insensible, and when he next observed the thermometer the mercury indicated 6 deg. below zero. The bags of sand in his balloon were frozen hard.

Attempted Suicide.—Mr. W. A. Bean, of this city yesterday afternoon swallowed about three ounces of laudanum, for the purpose as he says, of taking his life. Dr. Seavey being immediately called upon, by the prompt use of the stomach pump and active emetics, followed by the use of the galvanic battery and other professional remedies, succeeded in saving his life.—Journal

Mr. Weston is entitled, in our thanks, for frequent favors in the way of Boston papers in advance of the mail.

Dutch Women.—Coleman in his "European Life and Manners," gives the following description of the Dutch women:

"I think I some of them are the fairest and handsomest creatures I ever looked upon, and made of untouched porcelain clay. Before I left England I thought the English women the fairest I had ever seen—I now consider them as belonging to the colored races. The Dutch women much excel them. Take the fairest rose that ever was plucked, with the glittering dew-drops hanging among its petals; take the fairest peach that ever hung upon the tree, with its charming blended tints of red and white, and they are exceeded by the transparence and beauty of complexion of the fairest Dutch women, as I saw them at Broeck and Saardan. If their minds are as fair, and their manners as winning, as their faces, then I can easily understand the history of Adam's fall. It was impossible, poor fellow, that he should resist. Then their costume is pretty and elegant—a sort of thin gold helmet fitting close to the head, leaving enough of the hair to part gracefully over the brows; a thin but wide band of highly wrought and burnished gold extending across the forehead; at the ends of this some rich and elegantly wrought filagree ornament of gold, with splendid ear-drops of gold, or of diamonds set in gold, with a beautiful cap of the finest Brussels lace."

From Havana—Gen. Concha Censured—Morales Condemned.—New York, Oct. 16. A letter from Havana states that despatches had been received from Madrid, condemning the action of Gen. Concha in maintaining the volunteers during a time of peace and quiet.

Senor Morales, a citizen of New York, had been condemned to ten years' labor in the chain gang, for having in his possession, as is alleged, some revolutionary documents.—Telegraphed to the Mercury.

An Insolvent.—Nathan S. Miller of Providence, recently petitioned the Supreme Court of Rhode Island to be discharged from his debts, under the insolvent act of that State; and, according to law, attached to his petition an inventory of his "goods and chattels" as follows:

9 hens and one rooster, valued at	$5
1 pig, one cat and one dog,	5
1 bureau and one family bible,	4
3 small babies and a wood saw,	75!

The Vicksburg Whig of the 2d October, says of the yellow fever: "We are happy to be able to announce a decided abatement in the disease. We have heard of but very few cases to-day and nearly all of those now sick, are doing well. We think we can reasonably look forward to the disappearance of the scourge at an early day."

A libel suit has been commenced against the New York Dutchman for the publication of the following:—"Will Dr. H., who is such a nice young man, and who resides with Major ——, of the U. S. M. ——, be so kind as to step up to this office and pay us $2.63, if he has got it."

Col. Lane, a lawyer from Indiana, who had applied for admission into the District Court of Kansas, had been refused because he would not take an oath to sustain the enactments of the black Legislature of Kansas. Mr. J. S. Emery of Lawrence, had been similarly treated.

"Oh!" said Bob, "why is that tree called a weeping willow?"

"Cause one of the sneaking, plaguy things grew near our school house, and supplied the master with switches."

Illegal Election.—Advices from Kansas of the 3d inst., state that the election of the 2d inst., was entirely controlled by non-resident Missourians, who was passing to and fro in ferry boats all day.

A fine boy named Frazer fell upon his knife while running a race with other boys at Bigbee Valley, Mississippi, the blade entered his heart, and he died, before his father, who was one of the umpires, could reach him.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, astonishing Remedies for Scrofula. Mr Henry Judd, of Detroit Michigan, was in a most alarming state of health. He had been a great sufferer from scrofula for a number of years, and finally all part of his body broke out into sores, rendering life an object of horror to every one. He tried some of the most reputed remedies known, but they did not touch his complaint, and in the greatest alarm he consulted a friend as to what course he might to adopt, who told him Holloway's Ointment and Pills were recommended, which he commenced using, and by persevering in these remedies a short time, he was perfectly cured, after every other remedy had failed.

The editor of the International Journal says—"Of all the quackeries offered for the cure of Lung complaints, we have the greatest faith in

'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.'

Free from those atrocious ingredients which enter so largely into the composition of many other patent medicines, it acts without injury to the nervous system. We speak of this what is positive from personal knowledge of its effects. Scarcely two years have elapsed since a member of our family was saved from the very brink of the grave, through its use, and in several subsequent cases where it has been administered in our household, it has not once failed of the desired effect. We cheerfully commend it to our friends in the British Provinces, and among "the rest of mankind," as a certain remedy for incipient diseases of the lungs."

BOOM NOTICE.

IT has been decided to commence rafting at the Argyle Boom as soon as a crew can be obtained—probably on or before next Monday—and owing to the lateness of the season and the great difference of opinion existing among the owners of logs, we shall raft only such logs as the parties want, and turn through the rest into the booms below. Gentlemen will please notify their wishes accordingly, in writing addressed to Samuel Pratt, Boom Master, or William Averill, Clerk.

Gentlemen will notice that logs not taken at the Upper Boom will not be likely to reach the gap at the Lower Boom this year.

TELEGRAPHIC

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Arrival of the Empire City.

The steamer Empire City, Capt. Ingersoll, arrived at this port, at 3 o'clock, this P. M.—She brings 550 passengers, and nearly $140,000 in specie. The U. S. steamer Massachusetts left Acapulco on 25th Sept., to sail soon for Panama and Valparaiso. Steamship Eldorado sailed in company with the Empire City, for Astoria.

The difficulties with the Granadian officials, which led the American Consul at Panama to strike his flag, grew out of the imprisonment of one Wm. N. Hunter, an American citizen, on a charge of theft.

Extensive Claim.

Great excitement was created in the neighborhood of Washington Square, in this city, to-day, by the service of some 150 writs of ejectment, upon the inhabitants, from the U. S. Circuit Court. Thirty acres of land are claimed by two ladies, and they are attempting to establish their title. The property is valued at several millions of dollars.

Steamboat Explosion.

CHICAGO, 15 h.

The steam tug boat Senasa, while towing a raft down in this port, exploded her boilers, and went to pieces. The Capt., Donalsonson, escaped. Wm. J. Vaughan, the engineer, is probably mortally wounded. G. D. Sparda, owner of the boat, was badly scalded, and otherwise wounded.

From South America.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 16.

The bark Amazon has arrived here with three days later news from Rio, and a cargo of 1000 bags coffee. Political and commercial affairs were unchanged. The following American vessels were left in port. Ships Janiver from Philadelphia, discharging; Sparkling Sea from Boston, brig White Squall from New York, waiting orders; Mary Dale from Valparaiso, St. James from Philadelphia; Parthian, waiting orders, Morning Star, waiting; brigs Moscow, from Bangor, waiting; Frances Ellen, from Boston.

Colored Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, 15th.

The Colored American Convention commenced its session in Franklin Hall this morning. One hundred delegates were present, from N Y State Convention and Pennsylvania.

The convention permanently organized by electing Amos G. Beeman, of Conn., President. Another business was transacted, except the appointment of a committee on Rules.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN SACCARAPPA!—Estimated Loss $20,000.—A destructive fire occurred in Saccarappa Village on Sunday morning. The flames were discovered about 2 o'clock in a building from the Grist Mill of Messrs Hobbs & Cornwood, situated on the dam of the Portland Manufacturing Company. The building was owned by Judge Fitch of this city, and was entirely destroyed with its contents; including 300 bushels of corn and meal. The adjoining building, also owned by Judge Fitch, and occupied by Moody F. Morse, as a carriage factory with its contents, was also destroyed. Mr. Morse had on hand a large quantity of stock, in various stages of finish, and the loss cannot be less than $1000. He had no insurance.

The fire then spread to the sawmill of Messrs. Warren & Bingham, and also to the saw mill of Mr. Samuel Clemens. In the mill of Mr. C., were a gang of saws, and a set of shingle and lath machines. Both mills, with their contents were destroyed. The loss of Mr. Clemens is $1000. No insurance.—Portland Ads.

SPAIN.—A correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle says,—"The treaty with Japan is at present a nullity. The Japanese need another treaty to be dictated at Jeddo at the cannon's mouth. That part of the treaty which obliges all Americans to be made through the agency of Japanese officials must be done away with. It is made a means of extortion and refusal of many of the most desirable articles. Ratifications of the British treaty had not been exchanged. It was said that the British ratification was in possession of Admiral Sir James Sterling, who would meet the Japanese commissioners before he left Japan.

Since Admiral Pontlatha had concluded a treaty between Russia and Japan. The terms of this, it is said, do not differ much from those of the treaty negotiated by Com. Perry, on behalf of the United States. The French were also negotiating a treaty at Nangasaki.

Radway's Regulators.

The Third Great Medical Discovery of Radway & Co.

ONE REGULATOR is sufficient to regulate the one, Liver and Pancreas, to a healthy discharge of their functions.

Two will insure a pleasant discharge from the Bowels, at a regular period of time every day.

Four to six will purge thoroughly all corrupt and acrimonious humors from the alimentary canal.

Important to Pill Takers.

Every one who takes the hitherto taking pills will find RADWAY'S REGULATOR the most pleasant, safe, and effectual regulator of the Bowels, Liver, Pancreas, and the most certain Purifier of the Blood in use.

One of Radway's Regulators is superior, in point of medical strength and efficacy, to six of the most popular and best approved cathartic pills.

Radway's Regulator.

Radway's Regulators are most carefully prepared from extracts and gums of trees, plants, roots and herbs. There are no pills in use that will act upon the Liver, Pancreas, Bowels, the Salivary Glands and Nerves, so pleasantly and effectually as the R. R. REGULATORS. No pills can be taken for any length of time with the same safety to the constitution, for, instead of debilitating the system by powerful and drastic purging they act pleasantly upon the bowels, and impart strength to every nerve and tissue of the body.

Regulators vs. Pills.

We are continually asked, what is the difference between Radway's Regulators and ordinary pills?

We answer that pills, as they are ordinarily prepared and sold by different manufacturers, are generally of two kinds—those which operate on the bowels merely, called purgative pills, and those which excite the secretion of the liver, and are called mercurial or liver pills. Radway's Regulators resemble pills merely in shape, but differ in every other characteristic. They act not only on the bowels, but on the liver, skin, pancreas, and kidneys, regulating each organ to a healthy action. They are not drastic, and never give pain as most purgative pills do; they stimulate the liver without endangering the patient with salivation, as mercurial pills do, containing no mercury, as in their composition, they are harmless when used for a length of time. They are tasteless, being enveloped in an elegant coat of gum. 1 to 3 regulate, 3 to 6 purge—good at all times.

As a Family Physic

RADWAY'S REGULATORS are the most innocent, safe, mild and pleasant pills in use. They are a quick and certain cure for Costiveness, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Kidney Complaint, Jaundice, Headache, Nervousness, Melancholy, Diseases of the Bladder.
